As a Member of COSCA, we ask for your support with an advertisement in our 2011 Championship Show Ad Book. These books will be distributed during the Championship Show.

Your advertisement not only shows your support for COSCA, but also allows our association to make the show affordable to show that many breeds of Horses in the organization.

We rely on our advertising to provide our club with awards to present to the top riders and horses that work very hard to achieve their goals.

We are a non-profit association working with Adults and Children in various areas of Ohio.
